FD Names Betsy Neville Senior Managing Director of Midwest Operations

New York – July 12, 2007 — FD today announced the appointment of Betsy Neville as Senior Managing Director of the firm's Midwest Operations. An award-winning corporate communications professional, Ms. Neville will lead FD's Chicago office, developing new growth opportunities in the region and advising an array of firm clients. She joins FD from Ogilvy PR Worldwide where she served as Managing Director and head of the company's Chicago office.

Commenting on today's announcement, Declan Kelly, US CEO of FD, said, "We are delighted to welcome Betsy into the company. Her extensive professional experience, knowledge of the Midwestern region and expertise in counseling companies in varied industries makes her a valuable addition to the FD senior management team for clients across our network."

In her new position, Ms. Neville will work closely with the firm's senior team, including Harlan Teller, who oversaw the opening of FD's Chicago office in 2005. Mr. Teller will be taking on additional corporate responsibilities at a senior management level in the coming weeks.

A corporate communications specialist and former journalist, Ms. Neville has advised many of the world's leading companies across a variety of industries, including healthcare, professional services, legal, insurance and consumer products. She joined Ogilvy in 2003 to lead its Chicago corporate practice where she counseled clients including Deloitte, CDW, Zimmer, Inc., Country Insurance and Financial Services, Hudson Highland Group, University of Chicago and Medela, Inc. Earlier, Ms. Neville founded and was president of the Neville Group, a marketing communications agency providing public relations and marketing communications services. A former broadcast reporter, she began her career at the Chicago Tribune and holds a master's degree in journalism from Northwestern University. She is also on the Board of Directors of Taproot Foundation which provides pro bono marketing, human resources and IT services to non-profit organizations.
